

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

OCA: 86-0913

Director of Congressional Affairs

26 March 1986

NOTE FOR: The Director

FROM: David Gries

SUBJECT: Date of DDCI Confirmation Hearings

1. As you know, we have been pressing SSCI for early hearings. Last night I learned that they will be prepared for the hearings as early as 8 April, but cannot find an available public hearing room in one of the Senate office buildings. The first open date they have found is 27 April.

2. Obviously we cannot wait that long. I have put maximum pressure on SSCI staff, but urge that when you greet Chairman Durenberger before the sensitive collection hearing, you ask him to use his influence to move the hearing date as close to 8 April as possible.

NOTE FOR: DDCI-designate
FROM: Dave Gries
SUBJECT: Confirmation Hearings

I talked to several SSCI staffers today about the hearing and once again detected no hint of opposition.

[] gave me the attached. [] is also preparing a list of questions based on submissions from the entire staff and will provide me a copy of same. Very few questions are coming in, but he expects some on the [] issue, []
